

MA Education Leadership

Nationally recognised CPD for school and college staff

3 year programme

For existing school leaders and those who aspire to be school leaders

Suitable for teachers and support staff from all phases

Opportunities for self-reflection

Can be linked to appraisal targets

Study of the theory behind practice

Covers hot topics and current issues

Modules Covered

- ✓ Leading Learning
- ✓ Leadership and Management
- ✓ Independent study and School Leadership
- ✓ Work Based Project

Delivered at Stockton Sixth Form College, Training Room on Thursdays, 4pm – 7pm.

1. 04.02.16 - Introduction to the module. What is Leading Learning?
2. 11.02.16 - Concepts of Culture and Climate. The culture and climate of the 'workplace' (schools and classrooms).
18.02.16 - Half Term Week – University open as usual
3. 25.02.16 - Leadership behaviours
4. 03.03.16 – High quality learning and high quality teaching – Reality and rhetoric
5. 10.03.16 – Organising the school to maximise the learning processes of pupils and staff
6. 17.03.16 – Review – The module so far, followed by assignment review and tutorials
24.03.16 – 07.04.16 – Easter break
7. 14.04.16 – Monitoring teaching professionals. Working with stakeholders. Assignment support
8. 21.04.16 – Final thoughts / free discussion / module evaluation

Price per individual

£750 per year for 3 years

(heavily discounted due to part self delivery from host schools/colleges)

Suggested payment model for individuals: part funded by school/college and part self fund/pay back to school, (this is the responsibility of individuals and the school/college at which they are employed).

For bookings, please contact Catherine Dutson cdutson@stocktonteachingalliance.org.uk